| DAY1  | Buenos Aires, ArgentinaSaturday, 17/02/2029Glamorous and gritty, Buenos Aires is two cities in one. What makes Argentina's capital so fascinating is its dual heritage—part European, part Latin American. Plaza de Mayo resembles a grand square in Madrid, and the ornate Teatro Colón would not be out of pl... |
| DAY4  | Puerto Madryn, ArgentinaTuesday, 20/02/2029Approaching from Ruta 3, it's hard to believe that the horizon line of buildings perched just beyond the windswept dunes and badlands is the most successful of all coastal Patagonia settlements. But once you get past the outskirts of town and onto the wide coa... |
| DAY7  | Ushuaia, ArgentinaFriday, 23/02/2029At 55 degrees latitude south, Ushuaia (pronounced oo-swy-ah) is closer to the South Pole than to Argentina's northern border with Bolivia. It is the capital and tourism base for Tierra del Fuego, the island at the southernmost tip of Argentina.Although its sta...        |
| DAY8  | Cape Horn, ChileSaturday, 24/02/2029                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| DAY9  | Punta Arenas, ChileSunday, 25/02/2029Impenetrable forests, impassable mountains, and endless fields of ice define Chilean Patagonia, and meant that the region went largely unexplored until the beginning of the 20th century. Located in the southernmost part of the country, this area is still spars...       |
| DAY10 | Amalia GlacierMonday, 26/02/2029                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |

| DAY13 | Puerto Montt, ChileThursday, 01/03/2029For most of its history, windy Puerto Montt was the end of the line for just about everyone traveling in the Lake District. Now the Carretera Austral carries on southward, but for all intents and purposes Puerto Montt remains the region's last significant outp... |
| DAY16 | Valparaiso, ChileSunday, 04/03/2029Valparaíso's dramatic topography—45 cerros, or hills, overlooking the ocean—requires the use of winding pathways and wooden ascensores (funiculars) to get up many of the grades. The slopes are covered by candy-color houses—there are almost no apartments in the...     |
