| DAY1 | London Tower Bridge, EnglandMonday, 27/05/2030London is an ancient city whose history greets you at every turn. If the city contained only its famous landmarks—the Tower of London or Big Ben—it would still rank as one of the world's top cities. But London is so much more. The foundations of London's chara... |
| DAY2 | Portsmouth, EnglandTuesday, 28/05/2030Portsmouth is one of the most densely populated cities in Southern England, and is unusual as most of its built-up area occupies Portsea Island, linked to the mainland by road and rail bridges. Although there is a Roman fort at nearby Portchester, occupied lat...         |
| DAY3 | Fowey, EnglandWednesday, 29/05/2030Nestled in the mouth of a wooded estuary, Fowey (pronounced Foy) is still very much a working china-clay port as well as a focal point for the sailing fraternity. Increasingly, it's also a favored home of the rich and famous. Good and varied dining and lodging...            |
| DAY4 | Hugh Town, Saint Mary's, Isles of Scilly, EnglandThursday, 30/05/2030                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| DAY5 | Cobh, IrelandFriday, 31/05/2030Cork City's nearby harbor district has seen plenty of history. Cork Harbour's draws include Fota Island—with an arboretum, a wildlife park, and the Fota House ancestral estate—and the fishing port of Cobh.                                                                          |
| DAY6 | Kinsale, IrelandSaturday, 01/06/2030                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| DAY7 | New Ross, IrelandSunday, 02/06/2030                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |

|           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |

| DAY8  | Dublin, IrelandMonday, 03/06/2030Dublin is making a comeback. The decade-long "Celtic Tiger" boom era was quickly followed by the Great Recession, but The Recovery has finally taken a precarious hold. For visitors, this newer and wiser Dublin has become one of western Europe's most popular an...              |
| DAY9  | Douglas, Isle of ManTuesday, 04/06/2030The Isle of Man, situated in the Irish Sea off the west coast of England, is a mountainous, cliff-fringed island and one of Britain's most beautiful spots. Measuring just 30 miles by 13 miles, the Isle of Man remains semi-autonomous. With its own postage stamp...        |
| DAY10 | Belfast, Northern IrelandWednesday, 05/06/2030Before English and Scottish settlers arrived in the 1600s, Belfast was a tiny village called Béal Feirste ("sandbank ford") belonging to Ulster's ancient O'Neill clan. With the advent of the Plantation period (when settlers arrived in the 1600s), Sir Arthur Ch... |
| DAY11 | Portrush, Northern IrelandThursday, 06/06/2030Portrush is adjacent to the stunning North Antrim coastline. Here lies the medieval Dunluce Castle ruins. Perched picturesquely at the edge of a rocky outcropping high above the sea, the castle is dramatically surrounded by terrifyingly steep drops, which the...  |
